8.7 Shareholders still liable to pay money owing at the time of forfeiture and interest

Any person whose shares have been forfeited shall notwithstanding the forfeiture, be liable to pay and shall forthwith pay to the Company all calls, installments, interests, expenses and other moneys owing upon or in respect of such shares at the time of forfeiture together with interest thereon from the time of the forfeiture until payment at such rates as the Director may determine and the Directors may enforce the payment of the whole or a portion thereof as if it were a new call made at the date of forfeiture but shall not be under any obligation to do so.

8.8 Effect of forfeiture

The forfeiture of a share involve the extinction at the time of forfeiture of all interests and claims and demands against the Company in respect of the shares forfeited and all other rights incidental to the share, except only such of those right as by these presents are expressly saved.

8.9 Surrender of shares

The Directors may, subject to the provisions of the Act, accept a surrender of any share from or by any member desirous of surrendering them on such terms as they think fit.

8.10 Company's lien on shares

The Company shall have no lien on its fully paid shares. In the case of partly paid up shares, the Company shall have a first and paramount lien on such shares registered in the name of the each member, whether solely or jointly with others and upon the proceeds of sale thereof for all moneys called or payable at a fixed time in respect of such shares and whether held solely or jointly with any other person and whether the period for the payment, fulfillment or discharge thereof shall have actually arrived or not, and no equitable interest in any share shall be created except upon the footing, and condition that these Articles are to have full effect. Any such lien shall extend to all dividends and bonuses from time to time declared in respect of such shares. Unless otherwise agreed, the registration of a transfer of shares shall operate as a waiver of the Company's lien, if any, on such shares. The Directors may at any time declare any share to be wholly or in part exempt from the provisions of this Article.

8.11 As to enforcement of lien on sale

For the purpose of enforcing such lien, the Board of Directors may sell the shares subject thereto in such manner as they shall think fit, but no sale shall be made unless the sum in respect of which the lien exists is presently payable and until notice in writing of the intention to sell shall have been served on such member, his executors or administrators or his Committee, or other legal representatives as the case may be, and default shall have been made by him or them in the payment of the sum payable as aforesaid for fourteen days after the date of such notice. To give effect to any such sale, the Board may authorize some person to transfer the share and sold to the purchaser thereof and the purchaser shall be registered as the holder of the shares compromised in any such transfer. Upon any such sale as aforesaid, the certificate in respect of shares sold shall stand cancelled and become null and void and of no effect and the Directors shall be entitled to issue a new certificate or certificates in lieu thereof to the purchaser or purchasers concerned.

8.12 Application of proceeds of sale

The net proceeds of any such sale, after payment of the costs of such sale, shall be applied in or towards the satisfaction of such debts, liabilities or engagements of such member and the residue, (if any) shall, subject to a lien for sums not presently payable as existed upon the shares before the sale, be paid to such member or the person (if any) entitled by transmission to the shares so sold.

8.13 Certificate of forfeiture

A certificate in writing under the hand of a Director, manager or the secretary of the Company that the call in respect of a share was made, and notice thereof given, and that default in payment of the call was made, and that the forfeiture of the share was made by a resolution of the Directors to that effect shall be conclusive evidence of the facts stated therein as against all persons entitled to such share.

8.14 Title of purchaser and allottee of forfeited shares of shares sold in exercise of lien

Upon any sale after forfeiture or for enforcing a lien in the exercise of the powers herein

before given, the Board may appoint some person to execute an instrument of transfer of the shares sold and cause the purchaser's name to be entered in the Register in respect of the shares sold and the Company may receive the consideration, if any, given for the share on any sale, re-allotment or other disposition thereof and the person to whom such share is sold, re-allotted or disposed off may be registered as the holder of the share and he shall not be bound to sell to the application of the consideration, if any, nor shall his title to the share be affected by any irregularity or invalidity in the proceedings in reference to the forfeiture, re-sale, re-allotment or other disposal of the share and after his name has been entered in the Register in respect of such shares, the validity of the sale shall not be impeached by any person.

8.15 Cancellation of Share Certification in respect of forfeited shares

Upon any sale, re-allotment or other disposal under the provisions of the proceeding Articles, the certificate or certificates originally issued in respect of the relevant shares shall (unless the same shall, on demand by the Company, have been previously surrendered to it by the defaulting member) stand cancelled and become null and void and of no effect and the Directors shall be entitled to issue a new certificate or certificates in respect of the said shares to the person or persons entitled thereto.

9 TRANSFER AND TRANSMISSIONS OF SHARES

9.1 Form of Transfer

The instrument of transfer of any shares shall be in writing and all the provisions of Section 56 of the Act and of any statutory modifications thereof for the time being in force shall be duly complied with in respect of all transfers of shares and the registration thereof.

9.2 Nothing contained in Section 56 of the Act, shall apply to transfer of securities effected by the transferor and the transferee both of whom are entered as beneficial owner in the record of the Company.

9.3 Instrument of transfer to be executed by the transferor and transferee

Every such instrument of transfer shall be signed by or on behalf of the transferor and by or on behalf of the transferee and the transferor shall be deemed to remain the holder of such share until the name of the transferee is entered in the Register of Members in respect thereof.

9.4 Transfer not to be registered except on production of instrument of transfer

The Company shall not register a transfer of shares in the Company unless a proper instrument of transfer duly stamped , dated and executed by or on behalf of the transferor and the transferee and specifying the name, address and occupation, if any, of the transferee has been delivered to the Company by the transferor and the transferee within the prescribed period along with the certificate relating to the shares, or if no such share certificate is in existence along with the letter of allotment of the shares. Provided that, where the instrument of transfer has been lost or the instrument of transfer has not been delivered within the prescribed period, the Company may register the transfer on such terms as to indemnity as the Board may think fit.

9.5 Directors may refuse to register transfer

Subject to the provisions of Section 58 of the Act, the Directors may at their absolute and uncontrolled discretion, decline to register or acknowledge any transfer of shares and shall not be bound to give any reason for such refusal. In particular the Company may so decline in respect of shares upon which the Company has a lien or whilst any moneys in respect of the shares desired to be transferred or any of them remain unpaid and such refusal shall not be affected by the fact that the proposed transferee is already a member. Provided that registration of a transfer shall not be refused on the ground of the transferor being either alone or jointly with any other person or persons indebted to the Company on any account whatsoever except as stated hereinabove. The registration of the transfer shall be conclusive evidence of the approval by the Directors of the transferee.

9.6 The Company may refuse to register the transfer of any of its securities in the name of the transferee on any one or more of the following grounds and on no other ground namely;

- (a) that the instrument of transfer is not proper or has not been duly stamped and executed or that the certificate relating to the security has not been delivered to the Company or that any other requirement under the law relating to the registration of such transfer has not been complied with;
- (b) that the transfer of the security is in contravention of any law;
- (c) that the transfer of the security is likely to result in such change in the composition of the Board of Directors as would be prejudicial to the interest or in the interest of the Company or to the public interest;
- (d) that the transfer of the security is prohibited by any order of any court, tribunal or other authority under any law for the time being in force.
- (e) that the transferor has submitted written objection for registration of transfer without his or her written consent.

The transfer of shares, in whatever lot, would not be refused, though there could be no objection to the Company refusing to split a share certificate into several scrip's of small denominations or to consider a proposal for transfer of share comprised in a share certificate to several parties, involving such splitting, if on the face of it such splitting/transfer appears to be reasonable or with a genuine need.

Except as above, the Company would not refuse transfer in violation of the Stock Exchange listing requirements on the ground that the number of shares to be transferred is less than any specified number.

9.7 Notice of refusal to be given to transferor and transferee

If the Company refuses to register the Transfer of any share or transmission of any right therein the Company shall, within one month from the date of which the instrument of transfer or intimation of transmission was lodged with the Company, send notice of refusal to the transferee and transferor, to the person giving intimation of transmission along with reasons for such refusal, as the case may be, and thereupon the provisions of Section 58 of the Act, or any statutory modification thereof for the time being in force shall apply.

9.8 Transfer by legal representative

A transfer of a share in the Company of a deceased member thereof made by his legal representative shall, although the legal representative is not himself a member be valid as if he had been a member at the time of the execution of the instrument of transfer.

9.9 Custody of Instrument of transfer

The instrument of transfer after registration shall be retained by the company and shall remain in the custody. All instruments of transfer which the Directors may decline to register shall on demand returned to the person depositing the same. The Directors may cause to be destroyed all transfer deeds lying with the Company for a period of ten years or more.

9.10 Closure of transfer books

The Director shall have the power, on giving not less than seven day's previous notice by advertisement as required by Section 91 of the Act or such lesser time as required by Section 91 of the Act or such lesser time as may be prescribed by Securities Exchange Board of India, to close the transfer books of the Company, the Register of Members or the Register of Debentures holders as the case may be at such time or times and for such period or periods of time not exceeding in the whole 45 days in each year and not exceeding 30 days at a time, as to them may seem fit. The minimum time gap between two book closure date and / or record dates would be at least 30 days.

9.11 Title of shares of deceased holder.

The executors or administrators or a holder of a Succession Certificate in respect of the estate of a deceased member, not being one of two or more joint holders shall be the only persons recognized by the Company as having any title to the shares registered in the name of such deceased member and the Company shall not be bound to recognize such executors or administrators unless such executors or administrators shall have first obtained Probate or Letters of Administration as the case may be, from a duly constituted Court in India, provided that in any case where the Directors in their absolute discretion think fit, the Directors may dispense with the production of Probate or Letters of Administration or Succession Certificate and under the provisions of these Articles register the name of any person who claims to be absolutely entitled to the shares standing in the name of a deceased member, as a member.

9.12 Transmission Clause

Subject to the provisions contained in these Articles hereof, any person becoming entitled to a share in consequence of the death, lunacy or insolvency of any member, upon producing proper evidence of the grant of Probate or Letter of Administrations or Succession Certificates or such other evidence that he sustains the character in respect of which he purports to act under this Article or of his title to the Shares as the Board think sufficient may, with the consent of the Board (which it shall not be under any obligation to give), be registered as a member in respect of such shares, or may, subject to the regulations as to transfer hereinbefore contained, transfer such shares. This Article is herein referred to as the transmission Article.

- 9.13. (a) Notwithstanding anything contained herein above, every shareholder of the Company, may at any time, nominate, in the prescribed manner, a person to whom his shares in the Company, shall vest in the event of his death
- (b) Where the shares in the Company are held by more than one person jointly, the joint holders may together nominate, in the prescribed manner, a person to whom all the rights in the shares in the Company, shall vest in the event of death of all the joint holders.
- (c) Notwithstanding anything contained in any other law for the time being in force or in any disposition, whether testamentary or otherwise, in respect of such shares in the Company, where a nomination made in the prescribed manner purports to confer on any person the right to vest the shares in the Company, the nominee shall, on the death of the shareholder or as the case may be, on the death of the joint holders become entitled to all the rights in such shares, of the holder or, as the case may be, of all the joint holders, to the exclusion of all other persons, unless the nomination is varied or cancelled in the prescribed manner.

9.14 Transmission of shares by Nominee

- (a) Where the nominee is a minor, it shall be lawful for the holder of the shares, to make the nomination to appoint in the prescribed manner, any person to become entitled to shares in the Company, in the event of his death, during the minority.
- (b) A nominee may upon production of such evidence as may be required by the Board and subject as hereinafter provided, elect, either to be registered himself as holder of the share; or to make such transfer of the share as the deceased shareholder, could have made.
- (c) If the nominee elects to be registered as holder of the share himself, he shall deliver or send to the Company, a notice in writing signed by him stating that he so elects and such notice shall be accompanied with the death certificate of the deceased shareholder.
- (d) A nominee shall be entitled to the same dividends and other advantages to which he would be entitled to, if he were the registered holder of the share except that he shall not, before being registered as a member in respect of his share, be entitled in respect of it to exercise any right conferred by membership in relation to meetings of Company.

Provided further that the Board may, at any time, give notice requiring any such person to elect either to be registered himself or to transfer the share and if the notice is not complied with within ninety days, the Board may thereafter withhold payment of all dividends, bonuses or other moneys payable or rights accruing in respect of the share, until the requirements of the notice have been complied with.

9.15 Refusal to register in case of transmission

Subject to the provisions of the Act and these Articles, the Directors shall have the same right to refuse to register a person entitled by transmission to any shares or his nominee as if he were the transferee named in an ordinary transfer for registration.

9.16 Persons entitled may receive dividend without being registered as member

A person entitled to a share by transmission shall subject to the right of the Directors to retain such dividends or moneys as hereinafter provided, be entitled to receive and may give a discharge for any dividends or other moneys payable in respect of the shares.

9.17 Board may require evidence for transmission

Every transmission of a share shall be verified in such manner as the Directors may require and the Company may refuse to register any such transmission until the same be so verified or until or unless an indemnity be given to the Company with regard to such registration which the Directors at their discretion shall consider sufficient, provided nevertheless that there shall not be any obligation on the Company or the Directors to accept any indemnity.

9.18 No fee on transfer or transmission

The Company shall not charge any fee for registration for transfer or transmission in respect of shares or debentures of the Company.

9.19 Company not liable for disregard of a notice prohibiting registration of transfer

The Company shall incur no liability or responsibility whatsoever in consequences their registering or giving effect to any transfer of shares made or purporting to be made by any apparent legal owner thereof (as shown or appearing in the register of members) to the prejudice of persons having or claiming any equitable right title or interest (to do such shares notwithstanding that the Company may not have notice of such equitable right, title or interest) or may have received a notice prohibiting registration of such transfer and may have such notice as referred thereto in any book of the Company, and save as provided by Section 89 of the Act, the Company shall not be bound or required to regard or attend or give effect to any notice which may be given to it of any equitable right, title or interest or be under any liability whatsoever for refusing or neglecting so to do though it may have been entered and referred to in some book of the Company but the Company shall nevertheless be at liberty to regard and attend to any such notice and give effect thereto, if the Directors so think fit.

19.20 Register of Transfers.

The Company shall keep a book called the "Register of Transfer" and therein shall be fairly and distinctly entered the particulars of every transfer and transmission of any share in the Company.

20. COPIES OF MEMORANDUM AND ARTICLES TO BE SENT TO MEMBERS

Copies of the Memorandum and Articles of Association of the Company and other documents referred to in Section 17 of the Act shall be sent by the Company to every member within 7 days of his request and on payment of such sum as may be determined by the Board of Directors.

21 CONVERSION OF SHARES INTO STOCK

21.1 The Company, by ordinary resolution in General Meeting may:

- (a) Convert any fully paid-up shares into stock; and
- (b) Re-convert any stock into fully paid-up shares of any denomination.

21.2 Transfer of Stock

The holders of stock may transfer the same or any part thereof in the same manner as and subject to the same regulations under which the shares from which the stock arose might before the conversion have been transferred, or as near thereto as circumstances admit. Provided that, the Board may from time to time, fix the minimum amount of stock transferable, so however that such minimum shall not exceed the nominal amount of shares from which the stock arose.

21.3 Rights of Stockholders

The holders of stock shall, according to the amount of stock held by them, have the same rights, privileges and advantages as regards dividends, participation in profits, voting at meetings of the Company, and other matter, as if they held the shares from which the stock arose but no such privilege or advantage (except as regards dividends, participation in the profits of the Company and in the assets on winding up) shall be conferred by an amount of stock which would not, if existing in share, have conferred that privilege or advantage.

21.4 Regulations to apply to stocks

Such of the regulations of the Company (other than those relating to share warrants) as are applicable to paid-up shares shall apply to stock and the words "Share" and "Shareholders" in these regulations shall include stock and stockholder respectively.

22 MODIFICATION OF RIGHTS

If at any time the share capital is divided into different classes, the rights attached to any class of shares (unless otherwise provided by the terms of issue of the shares of that class) may, subject to the provisions of Section 48 of the Act, be modified, commuted, affected, abrogated or varied (whether or not the Company is being wound up) with the consent in writing of the holders of not less than three-fourths of the issued shares of that class, or with the sanction of a special resolution passed at a separate meeting of the holder of that class of shares and all the provisions hereinafter contained as to General Meeting shall mutatis mutandis apply to every such meeting.

23 JOINT HOLDERS

Where two or more persons are registered as the holders of any share they shall be deemed to hold the same as Joint holders with benefits of survivorship subject to the following and other provisions in the Articles:

- 23.1 The Company may be entitled to decline to register more than three persons as the joint holders of any shares.
- 23.2 The joint Holders of any share shall be liable severally as well as jointly for and in respect of all calls and other payments which ought to be made in respect of such share.
- 23.3 On the death of any such joint holder the survivor or survivors shall be the only person or persons recognized by the Company as having any title to the share but the Directors may require such evidence of death as they may deem fit and nothing herein contained shall be taken to release the estate of deceased joint holders from any liability in respect of the shares held by him jointly with any other person.
- 23.4 Only the person whose name stands first in the Register of Members may give effectual receipts for any dividends or other money payable in respect of such share.
- 23.5 Only the person whose name stands first in the Register of Members as one of the joint-holders of any share shall be entitled to the service of the notice and/or delivery of the certificate relating to such share or to receive documents (which expression shall be deemed to include all documents referred to in these Articles) from the Company and any documents served on or sent to such person shall be deemed served on all the joint-holders.
- 23.6 Any one of two or more joint-holders may vote at any meeting either personally or by proxy in respect of such shares as if he were solely entitled thereto and if more than one of such joint holders be present at any meeting personally or by proxy then that one of such persons so present whose name stand first or higher (as the case may be) on the register in respect of such shares shall alone be entitled to vote in respect thereof but the other or others of the joint holders shall be entitled to be present at the meeting. Provided always that a joint holder present at any meeting personally shall be entitled to vote in preference to a joint holder present by proxy although the name of such joint holder present by proxy stands first or higher in the Register in the Register in respect of such shares. Several executors or administrators of a deceased member in whose (deceased member's) sole name any share stands shall for the purposes of this clause be deemed joint.

24. DECLARATION BY PERSON NOT HOLDING BENEFICIAL INTEREST IN ANY SHARE

- 24.1 Notwithstanding anything herein contained, a person whose name is at any time entered in the Register of Members of the Company as the holder of a share in the Company, but who does not hold the beneficial interest in such share shall, within such time and in such form as may be prescribed, make a declaration to the Company specifying the name and other particulars of the person or persons who hold the beneficial interest in such share in such manner as may be provided in Section 89 of the Act.
- 24.2 A person who holds or acquires a beneficial interest in a share or a class of shares of the Company shall, within the time prescribed after his becoming such beneficial owner, make a declaration to the Company specifying the nature of his interest, particulars of the person in whose name the shares stand in the Register of members of the Company and such other particulars as may be prescribed as provided in Section 89 of the Act;
- 24.3 Whenever there is a change in the beneficial interest in share referred to above, the beneficial owner shall, within the time prescribed from the date of such change make a declaration to the Company in such form and containing such particulars as may be prescribed as provided in Section 89 of the Act;
- 24.3 Where any declaration referred to above is made to the Company, the Company shall make a note of such declaration in the Register of Members and file within 30 days from the date of receipt of the declaration by it, a return in the prescribed form with the Registrar with regard to such declaration along with such fees or additional fees as may be prescribed.

25 BORROWING POWER

25.1 Power to Borrow

Subject to the provisions of the Act and these articles and without prejudice to the other powers conferred by the Articles, the Directors shall have the power from time to time at their discretion, by a resolution passed at meeting of the Board and not by Circular Resolution to borrow money from Banks, financial institutions, bodies corporate, individuals or such persons or secure the payment of any sum or sums of moneys for the purposes of the Company. Provided that where the total amount borrowed at any time together with the moneys already borrowed by the Company (apart from temporary loans obtained from the Company's Bankers in the ordinary course of business) exceeds the aggregate of the paid up capital and its free reserves, that is to say, reserves not set apart for any specific purpose, the consent of the Company by way of a special resolution required. Such special resolution shall specify the total amount up to which moneys may be borrowed by the Board. The expression "temporary loans" in this Article means loans repayable on demand or within six months from the date of the loans such as short term loans, cash credit arrangements, discounting of bill and the issue of other short-term loans of reasonable character but does not include loans raised for the purpose of financing expenditure of a capital nature.

Any document or notice to be given by the Company shall be signed by the Managing Director or Secretary or by such Director or Officer as the Directors may appoint and such signature may be written or printed or lithographed or may be in electronic form.

44.8 Service of Notices by Members

All documents or notices to be given and on the part of the members to the Company shall be sent by post or speed post or courier service or by registered post to the Registered Office of the Company or by electronic mode.

45. AUTHENTICATION OF DOCUMENTS

45.1 Authentication of document and proceedings

Save as otherwise expressly provided in the Act or these Articles, a document or proceeding requiring authentication by the Company or contracts made by or on behalf of the Company may be signed by any Key Managerial Personnel or an Officer of the Company duly authorized by the Board in this behalf.

46. RECONSTRUCTION

46.1 Reconstruction

On any sale of the undertaking of the Company the Board or Liquidator on a winding up may, if authorized by a Special Resolution, accept fully paid or partly paid-up shares, debentures or securities of any other Company, whether incorporated in India or not, either then existing or to be formed for the purchase in whole or in part of the property of the Company, and the Board (if the profits of the Company permit) or the Liquidator (in a winding up) may distribute such shares or securities or any other property of the Company amongst the members without realization, or vest the same in trustees for them, and say Special Resolution may provide for the distribution or appropriation of cash, shares or other securities, benefit or properly otherwise than in accordance with the strict legal rights of the members or contributories of the Company and for the valuation of such securities or property at such price and in such manner as the meeting may approve and all holders of shares shall be bound to accept and shall be bound by any valuation or distribution so authorized, and waive all rights in relation thereto, save only in case the Company is proposed to be or is in the course of being wound up, such statutory rights, if any, under the Act as are incapable of being varied or excluded by these Articles.

47. WINDING UP

47.1 Distribution of Assets

If the Company shall be wound up, and the assets available for distribution among the members as such shall be insufficient to repay the whole of the paid up capital, such assets shall be distributed so that as nearly as may be the losses shall be borne by the members in proportion to the capital paid up or which ought to have been paid up at the commencement of the winding up on the shares held by them respectively. And if in a winding up the assets available for distribution among the members shall be more than sufficient to repay the whole of the capital paid up at the commencement of the winding up, the excess shall be distributed among the members in proportion to the capital paid up at the commencement of the winding up or which ought to have been paid up on the shares held by them respectively. But this Article is to be without prejudice to rights of the holders of shares issued upon special terms and conditions.

47.2 Distribution of assets in specie or kind

- (a) If the Company shall be wound up, whether voluntarily or otherwise, the liquidators may, with the sanction of special Resolution but subject to the rights attached to any preference share capital, divide amongst the contributories, in specie or kind, any part of the assets of the Company and may, with the like sanction, vest any part of the assets of the Company in trustees upon such trusts for the benefit of the contributors or any of them, as the liquidators, with the like sanction shall think fit.
- (b) If thought expedient any such division may, subject to the provisions of the Act, be otherwise than in accordance with the legal rights of the contributories (except where unalterably fixed by the Memorandum of Association) and in particular any class may be given preferential or special rights or may be excluded altogether or in part in case any such division shall be determined, any contributory who would be prejudiced thereby shall have right to dissent and ancillary rights as if such determination were a special resolution passed pursuant to the provisions of the Act.
- (c) In case any shares to be divided as aforesaid involve a liability to calls or otherwise any person entitled under such division to any of the said shares may within ten days after the passing of the special resolution, by notice in writing, intimate to the Liquidator to sell his proportion and pay him the net proceeds and the liquidator shall, if practicable, act accordingly.

47.3 Right of shareholders incase of sale

A special Resolution sanctioning a sale to any other Company duly passed pursuant to the provisions of the Act may, subject to the provisions of the Act, in like manner as aforesaid determine that any shares or other consideration receivable by the liquidator be distributed amongst the members otherwise than in accordance with their existing rights and any such determination shall be binding upon all the member subject to the rights of dissent and consequential rights conferred by the Act.

48. SECRECY CLAUSE

48.1 Secrecy Clause

SCHEDULES

Scheme of Compromise or Arrangement as sanctioned by the Court.

Dated this 27th day of April 1995

SCHEME OF AMALGAMATION

SAMVAAD COMMUNICATIONS LIMITED

PEARL SECURITIES LIMITED

With effect from the 1st day of August 1994 (hereinafter called “the appointed day”) the undertaking and all the properties, rights and powers of every description of Samvaad Communications Limited (SCL) (hereinafter referred to as the “ Transfer Company) without further act or deed be transferred to and vested in or deemed to be transferred to or vested in Pearl Securities Limited (hereinafter called “the Transferee Company”)

EXPLANATION : The undertaking “of the Transfer Company includes all rights, powers, authorities and privileges, and all properties, movable or immovable including leases and tenancy rights and cash balances, reserves, revenue balances and investments and all other interests and rights in or arising out of such property as may belong to or be in possession of the Transferor Company immediately before the appointed day including all licenses and import quotas issued to the transferor Company or to which it may be entitled to in future, even after the appointed day, all books of accounts and documents relating thereto and also their debts and liabilities of the Transferor Company immediately before the appointed day and all other obligations whatsoever account then existing of the Transferor Company.

- 2 All the liabilities and duties of the Transferor Company with effect from the said appointed day also be transferred or deemed to be transferred without further act or deed to the Transferee Company so as to become the liabilities and duties of the Transferee Company.
- 3 If any suit, appeal or other proceedings of whatever nature by or against the Transferor Company be pending the same shall not abate or be discontinued or be in any way prejudicially effected by reason of the amalgamation by anything contained in this Scheme, but the said suit, appeal or other legal proceedings may be continued prosecuted and enforced by or against the Transferee Company in the same manner and to the same extent as it would or might have been continued prosecuted and enforced by or against the Transferor company as if this Scheme has not been made.
- 4 Subject to other provisions contained in this Scheme all contracts, deeds, bonds, agreements and other instruments of whatever nature to which any of the Transferor Company are parties subsisting or having effect immediately before amalgamation shall be in full force and effect against or in favour of the Transferee Company and may be endorsed as fully and effectively as if instead of the Transferor Company the Transferee Company had been the party thereof.
- 5 On amalgamation of the Transferor Company with the Transferee Company, the services or all the employees of the Transferor Company shall stand transferred to the Transferee Company on the terms and conditions not less favourable than those subsisting with reference to the Transferor Company and without entailing and break in the continuity of services to the intent and effect that such employees had always been the employees of the Transferee Company. The position, rank and designation of the employees would be decided by the Transferee Company.

- 6 The transfer of property and liabilities under Clauses 1 and 2 and the continuance of proceedings by the Transferee Company under Clause 3 shall not effect any transaction or proceedings already concluded by the Transferor Company on or after the 1st day of August 1994 to the end and intends that the Transferee Company accepts and adopts all acts, deeds and things done and executed by the Transferor Company in regard thereto as done and executed by the Transferee Company on behalf of itself. Furthermore, as from the 1st day of August 1994, the Transferor Company shall be deemed to have carried on and to be carrying on its business on behalf of the Transferee Company until such time as this Scheme takes effect.
- 7 On the Scheme becoming effective, the Transferor Company be dissolved without winding up
- 8 The amalgamation of the Transferor Company with the Transferee Company will be made on the basis that the Transferee Company shall issue and allot in its Capital at par, credited as paid up to the extent indicated below, to the members of the Transferor Company whose names appear in its Register of Members on date to be fixed by the Directors of the Transferee Company or to such of their respective heirs, executors, administrators or other legal representatives or other successors in title as may be recognized by the Board of Directors by the Transferee Company and approved by them to be placed on its Register of Members in the following proportion namely.
- Eight (8) fully paid up Equity Shares of Rs 10/- each of the Transferee Company shall be issued for every One (1) fully paid up equity share of Rs 10/- each held by the members of the Transferor Company or their heirs, executors, administrators or their legal representatives or their successors in title as the case may be.
- The new equity shares of the Transferee Company to be allotted to the members of the Transferor Company shall rank for dividend, voting rights and in all other respects pari passu with the existing Equity Shares of the Transferee Company.
- 9 The Transferor Company shall with all reasonable dispatch, make application to the High Court of Gujarat at Ahmedabad for sanctioning this Scheme of Amalgamation under Section 391 of the Companies Act, 1956 and for an order or orders under Section 394 thereof for carrying this scheme into effect and for dissolution of the Transferor Company without winding up. The Transferee Company shall also make application to the High Court of Gujarat at Ahmedabad for sanctioning the scheme of Amalgamation of the transferor Company with the transferee company under the said provision of law.
- 10 The Transferor Company by its Directors and the Transferee Company by its Directors may assent on behalf of all the persons concerned to any modifications or amendments of his Scheme or of any conditions which the Court may deem fit to approve or to impose and solve all difficulties that may arise for carrying out the Scheme and to do all acts, deeds and things necessary and things necessary for putting the Scheme into effect.
- 11 For the purpose of giving effect to this Scheme of Amalgamation or to any modification thereof the Directors of the Transferee Company may give and are authorised to give such directions including directions for settling any question of doubt or difficulty that may arise in case of issue and allotment of shares.
- 12 This Scheme is conditional on the Scheme being agreed to by the requisite majorities as are referred to here-in-above and sanctioned by the High Court under Section 394 of the Companies Act, 1956 for and on behalf of the Transferor Company and the Transferee

Company and the necessary order or orders under section 394 of the Companies Act, 1956 referred to here-in-above being obtained.
